

FIRST FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK MAKES DONATION TO HICKMAN COUNTY SENIOR CITIZENS

CENTERVILLE, Tenn. Jan. 5, 2007 First Farmers & Merchants Bank recently made a donation to the Senior Citizens Center in Hickman County. Shela Chessor, Vice President and manager of the F&M Centerville office, said “I am pleased to not only participate in providing a financial contribution, but also to continue my service on the Senior Citizens board.”

The Center was chartered in 1974 and offers public transportation, recreation, physical fitness and health screenings, and visitations for homebound and nursing home patients.

Serving South Central Tennessee for over 97 years, First Farmers & Merchants Bank (member FDIC) is known for its strong commitment to the communities it serves. The bank currently serves a seven-county area through a network of 18 branch offices.

#