

FIRST FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK ADDS OGILVIE TO MAURY COUNTY ADVISORY BOARD

COLUMBIA, Tenn. (March 8, 2010) – Trent Ogilvie, executive director of the Columbia Housing Authority, has been named to the First Farmers Advisory Board of Maury County. The appointment was made by Chairman and Chief Executive Officer T. Randy Stevens.

“I look forward to having Trent join us on the Maury County Advisory Board,” Stevens said. “He’s been a very active leader in Columbia and I would anticipate his experience and knowledge will greatly benefit the customers, employees and shareholders of First Farmers.”

The Board advises First Farmers in their Maury County community relations efforts.

Ogilvie has spent five years with the Columbia Housing Authority, an organization that operates 296 affordable housing units for low-to-moderate income families. It also manages redevelopment initiatives for the City of Columbia. He also serves as pastor of the Bethel Chapel AME Church.

He graduated from Trevecca Nazarene University in 2004 with a degree in Management and Human Relations.

Ogilvie has been a member of the Columbia State Foundation Board, the Maury Regional healthcare Foundation Board, the Maury Alliance Board, the Leadership Maury Alumni Board, the Thirteenth Episcopal District Believe Board, the South Central Tennessee Workforce Board and the Kiwanis of Maury County Board.

He is married to the former Yolanda Tidwell and they have two children, Treyana and Makayla.
